MELVIN OOLEY DIES ENROUTE TO HOSPITAL

Two Companions Have Narrow Escape in Green Camp-rd Accident

HAD GONE FOR RIDE

Tire Blows Out, Causing Car to Swerve Into Other Machine

Losing control of the car when the tire on the left front wheel blew out, Melvin Ooley, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ooley, N. Main st, was almost instantly killed and his two companions miraculously escaped injury, when the car crashed into a Chevrolet coach one mile west of Marion on the Green Camp-pk at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Young Ooley died a short time later while enroute to City Hospital in C. E. Curtis & Co. ambulance.

His two companions were John Crissinger, 17, and Glenn, 6, sons of Mr and Mrs. H. W. Crissinger, 1043 Davids-st. The three youths had started out from the Crissinger home about 20 minutes before for a short ride after the noon-day meal at which Ooley had been a guest. They were riding in a Ford coupe and Ooley was driving.

Driven East

The Ford was being driven east on the Green Camp-pk at 25 miles an hour according to the elder Crissinger boy. The accident occurred near a small bridge near the Sawyer farm on the east side of which the Chevrolet coach driven by Mrs. G. N. Hogan, is said to have stopped to await the Ford.

When the Ford car struck the bridge, Ooley seemed to lose control and it headed for the Chevrolet. The force of the collision turned the Ford over pinning the younger of the Crissinger boys and Ooley underneath.

With the help of passing motorists, John Crissinger pulled the two youths from the wreckage. Ooley sustained a fractured skull and a broken jaw. Neither of the Crissinger boys was seriously injured.

Employed on Farm

Young Ooley was employed on a farm near Delaware. His parents were attending the annual convention

MARION LOSES TWO PASTORS

Rev. C. L. Allen Goes to Columbus; Rev. A. F. Uphoff to Grand Rapids

Marion will lose two pastors, retain two and receive two new ones as a result of appointments made at two church conferences which closed yesterday.

Rev. Clinton L. Allen, for seven years pastor of Calvary Evangelical Church, at the ninetieth Ohio Evangelical session which closed at Lorain yesterday, was appointed to the pastorate of the Milliron Evangelical Church in Columbus. He will be succeeded here by Rev. . E. Hadelbaugh, pastor of Bethany Church in Canton for the past three years. The change will be made next week and Reverend Allen will conclude his duties here with a farewell sermon next Sunday. Rev. P. E. Smoke, for seven years pastor of Reverend Allen's new charge, will go to Bucyrus.

German Conference

As a result of the German Methodist conference brought to a close yesterday at Seymour, Ind., Rev. A. F. Uphoff, who has been pastor of Prospect Street M. E. Church for the three years, will be transferred to Grand Rapids, Mich., to take charge of the M. E. Church there, and will be succeeded here by Rev. Karl Patow, of Pittsburgh, Penn. The change will be made Sept. 1 and Reverend Uphoff, who returns from the conference tonight, will conclude his duties here this week.

Rev. H. E. Williamson, pastor of Oakland Evangelical Church, and Rev. Irvin Kauffman, pastor of Greenwood Evangelical Church, were reappointed to the local pastorates by Bishop L. H. Seager of LeMars, Ia., at the Evangelical conference.

New Ministers

Of interest to Marion churchmen was the appointment of Professor James Campbell, ordained yesterday, to the pastorate of Salem Evangelical Church in the Beech Community. Professor Campbell has been in Marion a number of times and conducted services as song leader with the Petticord evangelistic party of Columbus.

Rev. C. W. Rohlman, pastor of the E. Eighth-av Evangelical Church in Columbus, former pastor of Oakland Church, was reappointed to the Columbus charge.

The next annual session of the Evangelical conference will be held in Toledo, it was announced.

COURTHOUSE PROJECT WILL COME TO VOTE

Proposed Improvement Will Be Presented To Taxpayers on November Ballot

FIX COST AT $80,000

Remodeling Would Provide Adequate Room for All County Offices, Claim

Proposed improvement of the Marion County courthouse will be submitted to voters at the November election. This is assured with the approval of the architect's plans by county commissioners.

The proposed improvement will cost approximately $80,000. The addition of a fourth floor is the principal improvement to be made. Every office and the corridors will be redecorated and a majority of the room will be remodeled to give added space for the transaction of county business.

Included in the plans for improvement is the removal of the steps at the south and west entrances of the building and the reconstruction of a double-line step to the second floor at the west. The outside stone will be sand blasted and a new roof will be constructed over the entire building.

New Heating System

An entire new vapor heating system will be installed to take the place of the hot air system now in effect. Plumbing in the reconstruction will be replaced and an elevator will be built in the south section of the structure near the proposed entrance.

Bonds will be issued for the entire amount of the improvement cost with dates of maturity not before March 1, 1929, and not later than Sept. 1, 1951. The documents will be dated from Jan. 1, 1929 and will draw an interest of 4.75 per cent. The estimate levy, according to County Auditor Earl Thomas will be .003 mills.

In event that the project passes at the November election with the approval of the people of Marion County, following the usual advertising of bids, work on the improvement will probably get under way about the middle of December, according to a statement today by J. Lewis Ellis, architect in charge of the plans for the building.

With much of the work to be done on the interior of the building, construction will in all probability start soon after the letting of the contract. The exterior work will be started as soon as the weather permits, according to tentative plans.

DAN BIRD HELD IN SHOOTING

Charged with Firing Through Window of Home with Intent To Kill

What police believe to have been a family feud growing out of a confession made by Herschel Shafer on Feb. 14, implicating Lester Bird in the series of farm robberies which took place early this year, terminated in the arrest at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning of Dan Bird, father of Lester, on a charge of shooting with intent to kill.

The affidavit was filed by Wesley Shafer, father of Herschel Shafer, and the arrest was made, the police said, after Bird had fired several shots through the window of the Shafer home on W. Center-st at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

According to the Shafers, the shooting has been going on for some time. Shots would be fired through the windows and against the side of the house by some one who would conceal [illegible] in the weeds on an adjoining lot but who always made his escape before the arrival of the police.

Post Watch

Early yesterday morning police concealed themselves in the weeds and waited for several hours. No one appeared, however, and they had returned to the city only a short time when more shots were fired through a window. Mrs. Shafer is said to have recognized Bird as he was leaving the lot.

Bird is also charged by the Shafers with destroying flower beds and shrubbery at their home. The trouble started, according to the Shafers, when their son made a confession implicating Bird in the series of farm robberies which took place early this year.

The ashes go to New York this afternoon to lead a Sacco-Vanzetti "march of sorrow" by New York sympathizers.

ROUND WORLD FLIERS CROSS OCEAN SAFELY

Schlee and Brock Continue to Germany After Night's Rest

RECEPTION GIVEN

Will Fly from Constantinople in Record-Breaking Attempt

Munich, Aug. 29—The Pride of Detroit, American round-the-world plane, landed here at 4 o'clock this afternoon, completing the second leg of its long flight.

Everything was in readiness here to receive Edward F. Schlee and William Brock, of Detroit, who flew here from Croydon, England.

Apprised of the fact that the fliers had chosen Munich as their second stopping place, the municipal authorities made arrangements to see that everything was prepared for their reception. The American population of the city gathered early at the landing field to give the fliers an enthusiastic welcome.

According to information available here, Schlee and Brock will not spend much time in this city, leaving probably tomorrow for Constantinople.

* * *

STOP AT CROYDEN FIELD SHORT ONE

Croydon, Eng., Aug. 29—With the first long hop of their round-the-world flight successfully completed, Edward F. Schlee and William S. Brock took off from the airfield here at 5:30 this morning for Munich, Germany.

The "Pride of Detroit," the Wright-propelled monoplane which carried the intrepid fliers 2,150 miles from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, made a beautiful take-off. Schlee and Brock circled the field, bade farewell to the land they had reached after their spectacular trans-oceanic flight of 23 hours and nine minutes, and disappeared into the clouds.

Munich is approximately 600 miles by air. Schlee and Brock are expected to arrive in that city before 3 o'clock this afternoon, although if they maintain the same average speed of 111 miles an hour they kept on their flight across the Atlantic they should reach Munich ahead of that time.

Weather Perfect

Weather conditions were perfect for the flight. The "Pride of Detroit" was trundled out of its hangar here shortly before 7 o'clock this morning, and after inspecting the engine, mechanics began the task of filling the plane's huge tanks with gasoline.

The Detroit aviators arrived at the air-field before 8 o'clock. They supervised the loading of the gasoline, gave the engine a final inspection, and climbed into the cockpit. Schlee and Brock waved happily to the throng which had gathered to see the take-off, and as the powerful motor started, settled down in their seats for the second leg of what they hope will be a record-breaking tour of the world.

Schlee and Brock landed here at 10:25 o'clock Sunday morning, calmly stepping from their plane more as though they were members of a tourist party than aviators defying the elements in a flight around the world.

Brock and Schlee arose early this morning after a good night's sleep at the Savoy Hotel in London. They ate a hearty breakfast and immediately

London, Ontario, to London, England, Aviators Turn Back After Start

"OLD GLORY" READY

"Royal Windsor" Is Waiting To Start on Flight to England

By International News Service

UNDAUNTED by disasters which had overtaken other flyers, daring aviators were today writing air history in the sky.

In their monoplane, the "Pride of Detroit," Edward F. Schlee and William S. Brock, hopped off from Croydon, England, at 5:30 o'clock this morning (English Time) for Munich, Germany, on another leg of their round-the-world flight. The distance from Croydon to Munich by air is 600 miles. The flight was completed at 4 o'clock. The "Pride of Detroit" had only a few hours before completed a hop across the Atlantic to Croydon from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, in 23 hours and nine minutes.

Tully, Metcalf Return

And, from London, Ontario, Captain Terry Tully and Lieutenant James Metcalf hopped off in their plane, "Sir John Carling," at 5:30 this morning on a non-stop flight to London, England. Encountering a storm, however, they returned to the starting point.

At the same time preparations were being made by Phil Wood, navigator of the "Royal Windsor" and C. A. Schiller, pilot, to hop off this afternoon on a non-stop flight from Windsor, Ontario to Windsor, England.

Meanwhile South American cities were without word of the whereabouts of Paul Redfern, American aviator, who took off last Thursday from Brunswick, Ga., on an attempted non-stop flight to Brazil. He is long overdue and feared to be lost.

No Word of Dole Fliers

No word has been received of the Dole fliers missing somewhere in the Pacific.

At Roosevelt Field, Long Island, "Old Glory," the Hearst single motor plane was poised on the runway waiting for dry weather to hop off for Rome, a distance of 4,200 miles.

Flights from Europe to America were being held up by bad weather over the Atlantic.

Preparations were being made by Phil Wood, navigator, of the "Royal Windsor" and C. A. Schiller, pilot to begin the non-stop Windsor to Windsor flight some time this afternoon. The "Royal Windsor" received its final tests and the second Canadian flight awaited only favorable conditions. The tentative hour set for the start at 1 p. m.

SIR JOHN CARLING TURNED BACK BY STORM

London, Ont., Aug. 29 — The Canadian plane Sir John Carling, which set out this morning to fly to London, Eng., returned to this city this afternoon, the plane, piloted by Capt. Terry Tully and Lieut. James Metcalf, had hopped off at 6:30 o'clock. Over Lake Ontario a rain storm was encountered and the plane turned from the lake flying inland at Prince Edward County at the eastern end of the lake.

Taking off from the field near Crumlin, the plane rose beautifully as thousands of persons watched with keen in-

Levine Makes Flight To London Unaccompanied

London, Aug. 29—Charles A. Levine, American trans-atlantic flier, who set out from Le Bourget, near Paris, in his plane Columbia this afternoon, landed at the Croydon Flying Field, near London, at 4:30 o'clock. It was not until he reached Croydon that his destination was known.

Levine circled the field three times before he was able to land. He brought the Columbia down safely.

Experienced fliers who were at the field said that Levine had made a fairly satisfactory flight from Le Bourget considering the fact it was his first.

To Engage Pilot

Levine told International News Service that he would engage a pilot in England to fly the Columbia to New York. He had previously engaged Maurice Drouhin, a French airman, to pilot the Columbia from Le Bourget to America on a non-stop flight but has been in constant dispute with him.

"I am through with all Frenchmen and French airdromes," he said.

It is understood that Levine is negotiating with W. G. Hinchcliffe, an English commercial pilot, to take the Columbia back to New York.

Levine Calm

The American was calm and unruffled over his spectacular landing, but he had caused experienced fliers at the Croydon Field almost to suffer heart failure as they watched him. Pilots long used to the dangers of the air shuddered as they watched Levine trying to make a crude landing. He was going through evolutions which the most practised airmen would never dream of attempting. Finally two commercial pilots jumped into a small airplane, took the air and circled about the Columbia waving to Levine to attract his attention. Then they made a landing to show him how it should be done.

DROUHIN HURRIES TO LE BOURGET FIELD

Paris, Aug. 2—Arriving alone at Le Bourget Flying Field at noon today, Charles A. Levine, American transatlantic flyer, hopped off in his plane Columbia and began a flight for an unknown destination.

Levine had entered into a contract with Maurice Drouhin, a French aviator, to act as a co-pilot on a trans-ocean flight from Le Bourget to the United States, but the flight has been postponed from time to time owing to disputes between the two men and bad weather.

Confers With Union

When Levine suddenly took off by himself, friends hastened to Drouhin with the news, believing that Levine was taking the Columbia to London. The Frenchmen hurried to the flying field and conferred with representatives of the French Air Union. This company immediately had a Goliath plane wheeled from its hangar and mechanics began tuning up the motor. The plane was offered to Droughin to follow Levine if he desired.

Drouhin, who was accompanied by his faithful Mechanic [illegible], was furious over the departure of Levine. He claimed that the air port [illegible] should have prevented the [illegible] from leaving.

Lima Trims Marion Eagles In Second Series Game

SPORT SAUCE

BY EDDIE SCHOENLEB

CALVARY and Tri-[illegible], winners of each of the [illegible] School leagues, will meet [illegible] Lincoln Park, in the sixth game of the Little World Series. The loser is out of the running for the city championship. The winner will have a fighting chance.

If the dope bucket in recreational ball was not more leaky than a garden hose in a desert, we might attempt to predict the outcome of the Little World Series. As it is, we asked to be excused.

One thing is certain, however. The Marion Steam Shovel Shops have the jump on every other team. They haven't lost a game while others have already lost one. And the Shovels have played real sweet ball. They'll be a tough assignment for any opponent.

Calvary and the Steam Shovel showed the best form and gave the finest exhibitions of recreational ball during the first week, and, if you wish to follow the dope, should meet again Friday night. But "should" and "will" are two very different words with two very different meanings.

Should the two teams meet again Friday, however, the Shops still will have the jump on Calvary. The Sunday School team must defeat the Shops twice before it can win the honor while the Shovels have only to knock off Calvary once and it's all over but the singing.

* * *

ADMISSION prices to Lincoln Park will be slightly advanced starting Sunday or Labor day when the Marion Eagles play, management of the local club has announced. Booking better teams and giving an exhibition of high class baseball necessitates the raise in price, it is said.

Lima will play here Labor Day in the third and last game of a series with the Marion Eagles. Canton Clowns, with six professional clowns, come here Sept. 11.

"NO News Today — Bobby Jones Wins National Amateur Tourney" reads the headlines in one Ohio newspaper.

And that's what happened—as usual. The incomparable Bobby again triumphed Saturday when he walloped Chick Evans in the finals of the National Amateur Golf Championship at Minneapolis. He won, 8 up and 7 to play.

Bobby's victories are getting so plentiful that whenever he's entered in a tournament, sports fans take it for granted that he'll win. In fact, no golf tournament is really complete without a Jones' victory.

WHILE Marion recreational ball players taking part in the Little World Series have not been forced to postpone a game because of rain so far, the weather has been far from pleasant for baseball. Football weather prevailed all during the series.

AFTER cleaning up on the New York Yankees and Washington Senators, winning seven straights, the Cleveland Indians yesterday finally struck a snag in the form of Boston. But it took the Bean City boys 11 innings to turn the trick then.

Cleveland was the only major league team to go through last week's games with a perfect record. It's winning streak over the Washington outfit has much to do with the elevation of the Philadelphia Athletics to second place in the American League standing.

The Senators have lost 12 straight games and Detroit Tigers have fallen five times in a row after winning 13 straight.

THE case of the Toledo Mudhens probably is the saddest being discussed in baseball circles today. The Mudhens, after leading the American Association for weeks and weeks, have met their Waterloo at the hands of the Kansas City Blues. They can't beat the Kows, and, incidentally, it happens that the Blues are the chief contenders for the American Association title.

The Toledo club has descended to third place during their last series of games with Kansas City and must snap out of the slump if they expect to finish near the top.

Helen Wills Plays Helen Jacobs In Tourney Today

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 29—Unless rain should again intervene to make another break in the already much interrupted Women's Lawn Tennis Championship tournament at the Westside tennis club here, Helen Wills, queen of the American courts, will battle Miss Helen Jacobs, and Mrs. Charlotte Hosmer Chapin, who dethroned Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, 1926 champion, on Friday, in the semi-finals of the singles matches this afternoon. At the same time the semi-final round of the doubles with its indubitable British flavor will also be played.

Miss Wills, who has swept all before her with consummate ease in the early rounds of the tournament, will face the hardest opposition she has had to meet when she tackles Miss Jacobs, but there are few who believe that the younger California girl has either the ability or the experience in championship play to make more than a fair showing against the invincible Miss Helen, holder of the Wimbledon crown and the acknowledged leading woman player of the world. However, Miss Jacobs may have a surprise or two in store for the champion.

The young girl from the coast has met and defeated some really fine players on her way to the semi-finals. In fact the opposition she has overcome was much stronger than that which Miss Wills has had to face. On the strength of this, therefore, Miss Jacobs may extend the champion, who in the four rounds already played has dropped a total of only 11 games and has not been even seriously threatened with the loss of a set.

The fireworks of the day are expected to be provided by Mrs. Chapin and Miss Nuthall, both of whom have eliminated strong opponents in their battles up to the semi-finals. Mrs. Chapin is the heroine of the tournament thus far and her brilliant victory over Mrs. Mallory in the quarter finals has been the outstanding feature of the matches.

The Pets this year have the best team in many seasons, and are playing great ball before large crowds.

Marion Gets Only Four Hits While Independents Hammer Main for 11 Safe Blows; Lima Comes Here for Third Game Labor Day

BY BOB ELLIOTT

OUTPLAYING the Marion Eagles in every department of the game, the Lima Independents yesterday evened [illegible] by winning the [illegible], 7-4. The game was played at Lima.

The Independents, led by Wildermuth, [illegible] a triple, [illegible] out 11 blows off Moose Main, the [illegible] while Marion received only four bingles.

Due to the absence of "Bus" Brown, the Eagles' left fielder, Baron presented [illegible] at the start of the fray. [illegible] started in left with Pine at [illegible], Rizor at second, Baron on first [illegible]. The switch [illegible] both the fielding and batting [illegible].

The Eagles, with the exception of Rizor, could do nothing with Ulrich, the Lima hurler. [illegible] garnered two triples in four attempts. In the sixth he sent Ollie Klee, former Ohio State star, to the scoreboard to take his [illegible].

Baron, who is leading the Eagle hitters, could not connect safely until the eighth when he slid a double into left center. This, by the way, was Baron's twelfth double of the season and puts him five ahead of his closest opponent in the race for "double" honors. Glen Price has seven. Price singled in the second for Marion's only other safety yesterday.

Buckland Fields Well

Buckland displayed the best fielding on the home outfit, handling seven chances without a mishap. Three nicely executed double plays helped Marion out of hot water in the second, fifth and sixth stanzas.

Ulrich received much better support than the Marion hurler. Leis at short and Klee in center scintillated on the field for Lima. Leis, who has been playing first base for the Independents, accepted five chances perfectly in his new position.

Lima took the lead in the first as "Dutch" Wildermuth slapped a hard double to left scoring Marquardt, who had reached first on Pine's error and gone to second when Baron muffed Main's throw to catch him off the bag.

Eagles Come Back

The Eagles, however, came back strong in the second. Price singled through the box to open the round. Conroy walked and Rizor hammered a terrific triple over Ollie Klee's head in left center, scoring Price and Conroy. Rizor crossed the plate on Chet Sharrock's long sacrifice fly to center.

The Independents scored three more in the third on successive singles by Ulrich, Marquardt and Wildermuth, followed by Leis' long double. Marion tied up the game in the fourth only to have Lima take the contest in its half with three tallies. The Eagles' final run came as Rizor sent a long fly against the left field fence for his second triple of the game and Chet Sharrock again scored him with a sacrifice fly to Klee.

The Independents scored their winning tallies in the same inning. Leis opened the frame by flying to Buck. Blaske singled to center. Ulrich sent him to third with a double. Pine cut off Blaske at the plate for the second out, making a neat play on Klee's grounder to short. Marquardt walked, filling the bases, and Wildermuth cleaned the sacks with a triple to deep left center, one of the hardest hits of the game.

Lima Here Monday

The Eagles entertain the Independents here Labor day in the rubber of the three-game series. The largest crowd of the season is expected to witness the fray.

We want skeptics to try out Havana Ribbon against any other five-cent cigar. Test it for every quality found in a good cigar—ripeness of tobacco used, flavor, fragrance, body, and mildness. All we ask is for you to buy one Havana Ribbon at five cents. Smoke it and ask yourself if you ever tasted such quality in any cigar at anywhere near like the price. You'll never wonder again whether a cigar selling at 5c can be really satisfying. You'll know it is.

Connie Mack's Athletics Tighten Hold On Second By Again Trimming Tigers

Washington Senators and Detroit Suffering Slump in American League; Yanks Again Defeat St. Louis Browns; Babe Gets Homer

New York, Aug. 29—Just a baker's [illegible] the Washington Senators and the Detroit Tigers have never been the [illegible] they were plastered by the New York Yankees recently. [illegible] by the [illegible] of "murderers' row," the Senators have lost 12 straight and the Tigers [illegible] straight. Detroit [illegible] second place to the Athletics.

The St. Louis Browns, however, have been soft for the Yanks all season. The Hugmen massacred the [illegible] crew yesterday, 10 to 6, for the 17th time in as many starts this season. Babe Ruth's 42nd homer put him two ahead of Gehrig.

The Yanks must win 19 of their remaining 31 games to break the American League record of 105 games won in a season.

Connie Mack's Athletics clinched their hold on second place by outslugging the Tigers 9 to 5. The A's trail the Yanks by 18 games.

Winning Streak Ruined

Cleveland's winning streak of seven straight was practically ruined when the Indians lost to the Red Sox in the eleventh, 6 to 5. Rothrock's single won the game.

Blankenship of the White Sox whitewashed the Senators, 4 to 0. The winners scored all their runs in [illegible] rally featured by [illegible].

All National League games were [illegible]. The scene shifts today with the [illegible] playing the Giants, the Cardinals going to Brooklyn and the Pirates [illegible] the Phillies. The Giants and [illegible] lost $150,000 in gate receipts and a possible chance to overhaul the Cubs as a result of continued postponements. Even if nothing but double headers are played when the eastern teams go west, some of the postponed games can not be played off.

BABE RUTH GETS ANOTHER HOMER

New York, Aug. 29—Babe Ruth is two up on Buster Gehrig today in their home run duel, [illegible] being the greatest advantage enjoyed by either slugger in some time. The Babe's 42nd homer yesterday was his second in two days. He is traveling at a faster pace than Gehrig, but is six behind his record of 1921, when he walloped 59.

Ruth's homer yesterday was his only hit. Gehrig got two bingles, both were singles.

COON CHASE TO BE STAGED HERE OCT. 1

One Hundred Dogs Already Entered in Events, Says Slatzer

The second annual Shady Side Field Trial Coon chase will be held Saturday, Oct. 1, beginning at 10 a. m., at the Marion County Fairgrounds, it was announced today. The fields adjoining the fair grounds also have been secured in order to give longer chases.

One hundred dogs already have been entered, according to George Slatzer, 453 Cherry-st, secretary and manager of the hunt. Sixty per cent of all entrance fees will be divided—40 per cent to first dog grand champion; 15 per cent to second dog grand champion, and five per cent to the third dog.

It is the second coon chase held here this season. The first chase of the summer, staged at Marion County fairgrounds on the Fourth of July, was a huge success. This promises to be an even greater meet.

A coon chase is also planned for Kenton on Labor Day. A number of local enthusiasts expect to make the trip to Hardin County on that day.

Then Feebie's [illegible] some fresh figs, just like they grow on the trees down south, and someone had sent them to her by airplane mail and she had put them on ice, and they certainly looked good. She gave us all a good long look at them.

My aunt raved about them so much that when we started for home Feebie's father gave her a big purple one and said to take it home and put cream and sugar on it and divide it up. But when they had got there the door shut and my aunt stepped down the last step the fig fell out of her hand and rolled over into the grass, but it rolled right out again almost to her feet. We could all see it in the dark against the whiteness of the sidewalk, and my aunt stooped down and grabbed it and held it up close to her eyes to look at it, and then she screeched and fainted. She had picked up a toad-frog.

The fig didn't taste so very good. I would rather have a peach any time.

2, Aug. 30—After absorbing fit-taking, liquidation and selling on the high-priced specialty stocks today, the eloped a strong tone, re- of its early losses and ad in all departments under impetus of persistence from and outside sources.

Surges Forward

fter the noon period when op crossed 145 for a new 4 points, the whole market ard in an aggressive buying which again swept the bears et and snapped up all offerings of the well-known industrial stocks on a rising market. General Motors raced up 7 points to 251 3-4 and equally buoyant were a number of the specialty shares which were under pressure early in the day.

The business surveys of the new week were generally cheerful, though lacking evidence of any real revival of trade in any important department. July Railroad earnings thus far reported are 2½ per cent below the same month last year; copper buying is extremely quiet; oil and sugar unchanged today. Wheat declined about 3 cents a bushel in New York and Chicago as the result of improved European weather and crop conditions, while cotton advanced about $2 a bale.

There was no abatement in the country-wide demand for the high grade dividend-paying stocks, according to reports in the commission houses. The evidence is furnished by the large volume of odd lot buying of U. S. Steel, General Motors and a dozen or more of the better grade of railroad industrial and utility stocks. It required only a moderate volume of this kind of buying today to elevate General Motors, American Can, Chrysler Motor, General Electric, etc. 2 to 8 points above their low price levels.

Today in Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meats, Grain, Livestock

The morning found markets stocked up following the week end rush, with a generous supply of nearly all kinds of green vegetables with the exception of sweet corn. Corn continues scarce and in the opinion of dealers will not be any more plentiful the remainder of this season. The continued cool weather together with it not being a good corn year, is given by dealers as the reason for the short crop. Cucumbers also are arriving on the market in small quantities and are selling at 15 cents. Potatoes are holding at 45 cents. Green beans were plentiful today and were selling at 15 cents or two pounds for 25 cents. Tomatoes continue to be plentiful and are selling at four pounds for 25 cents. A few egg plant were on the market today and were selling readily at 25 and 30 cents. Small white squash were supplying the demand today at 15 cents.

Fruit prices are steady with a fairly large supply of all seasonable fruits. Peaches continue to hold at the peak price of two pounds for 25 cents. Canning plums were plentiful today at $2.50 a bushel. A large stock of apples are being carried by dealers which are selling readily at five pounds for 25 cents. California Malaga grapes continue to supply the local market at 15 cents a pound. A few watermelons are being carried by dealers but are moving slowly at 45 cents.

Lard was quoted at one half cent higher this morning. An advance in pork is looked for due to an increased demand brought about by the continued cool weather. Meat prices were steady today.

UNION SERVICE WELL ATTENDED

Rev. Herbert F. Weckmueller, First Reformed Pastor, Delivers Message

"Open the window of your soul and let in God's love and the sunshine. It will become beautiful and the beautiful will become holy," said Rev. Herbert F. Weckmueller, pastor of First Reformed Church, in a splendid sermon on the subject, "Open Windows," last night at the well-attended union church service at First United Brethren Church.

Reverend Weckmueller took as his text, Daniel, chapter 6, verse 10: "Now his windows were open in his chamber towards Jerusalem." In his introduction Reverend Weckmueller gave a short sketch of the life of Daniel, of his rise from captive boy to the third ruler of the kingdom of Babylon, and told how he had received his inspiration and power from the window of his heart open towards God.

Must Open Windows

"Every life must have its window open to the ideas of man and the inspiration of God," Reverend Weckmueller said. "For a life whose windows are closed will eventually die. We must also keep them open to a long view, [illegible]

"We must keep the window of our heart open to an ideal vision. The people [illegible] We must have a certain amount of idealism [illegible] for things that are not dreamed will never happen."

Must Hear Voice

"We must keep the window of our heart also open towards heaven, that we may hear the voice of God."

In conclusion Reverend Weckmueller said "Daniel did not become an impractical man because of his vision because that vision gave him power to become practical; his idealism did not rob him of his practical common sense."

Assisting the presiding minister, Rev. W. H. Howard, pastor of the church, were Rev. George E. Groves, who read the scripture, Isaiah chapter 2, the first five verses, and Revelation, chapter 21, first to seventh verses, pictures of the new Jerusalem. Dr. B. L. George, pastor of Epworth M. E. Church, conducted devotionals and Reverend Groves pronounced benediction. The choir was heard in a special number.

HOLD OFFICER AS MURDERER

"Shiek" of New York Force Denies Guilt in Brutal Crime

New York, Aug. 29—Desire of a young "shiek" policeman for quick easy money with which to show his girl friends a good time—that, according to the theory of the police today, was the motive back of the astonishing and brutal murder of Judson Hewitt Pratt, paymaster of a construction company, who, on Saturday, was shot to death in his automobile and his $4,197.85 payroll seized.

The policeman, Daniel J. Graham, Jr., 25 years old, and known to his brother officers as "handsome", is under arrest accused of the crime. Although faced with seemingly irrefutable evidence, he stubbornly declared at police headquarters where he was getting over the effects of a champagne jag that he "didn't do it."

Question Friends

Two of his young women friends have been questioned by the police and both have corroborated that the patrolman had been spending money with reckless abandon since Saturday. One of them, Miss Margaret Wogan, of Brooklyn, a 20-year-old telephone clerk, said to be his fiancee, admitted going with Graham Saturday afternoon to buy a snappy roadster, which he paid for with $20 bills. After he bought the car he gave her $800 to "keep for him." The other girl, Marion Scott, hostess in a Coney Island cabaret, told the police of a revel the policeman staged in the cabaret Saturday night during which he passed around $20 bills, to her and others.

Checking Numbers

Most of the payroll was in $20 bills. Consequently, the authorities were today checking with the cashier of the Seaboard National Bank the serial numbers of the bills to see if they tally with those carried by the murder victim.

The police classify the murder as one of the most stupid and coldblooded in many years.

The car carries Ohio license 97-173 and the doors bear the initials C. H. P. A tire cover on the rear carries the name of Gallentine Brothers, Crestline. The police are making an effort to locate the owner of the machine.

Bobby Says:

"Mother took me downtown yesterday to buy me some new clothes. At first I didn't want to go, but, oh boy, I am glad I went. I'll tell you all about it. First we stopped at Kleinmaier's. We looked at some suits. I found one I thought was a peach. She liked it, too,—said it was a value, so we bought it. It'll be here in the morning. I'll show it to you. We paid only $9.85 for it, too.

Then we went to the Hat department and she bought me a swell hat for only $1.45 but she said I could only wear it on Sundays.

Then she took me on another floor and guess what she bought—a regular golf sweater to wear to school.

Next she bought me a suit of that new kind of underwear — step-ins I guess they call them — cost 95c.

Then we went home. Don't you think my mother's a peach, fellows? I'll have to go to the store now so I'll see you later."

FOUR ARRESTS IN AUTO THEFTS

Two Cars Recovered, Suspects Captured Within an Hour Yesterday

[illegible]

Rented Car, They State

All of [illegible] questioning by the [illegible] Holmes, the pair admitted they did not own the car but had rented it from a Drive-Yourself concern in Cincinnati and intended to pay 10 cents a mile for the trip to Detroit and return, which would total about $90.

In the meantime Chief [illegible] had returned with the [illegible] and when the three could produce only a little more than $1 and were unable to explain how they were going to pay $90 for the use of the car, the patrolman decided things were not as they should be and the trio were taken to police headquarters.

A telegram to the chief of police at Cincinnati later in the morning brought a reply at 5:20 yesterday afternoon advising the police to hold the men, as the Chevrolet had been stolen from that city Saturday night. The three, who were taken back to Cincinnati today, were booked as William Haywood, 17, Dan Carey, 21 and Nathan Copeland 18 colored. All were from Cincinnati.

Recover Reo Car

While the three Cincinnati men were being booked at police headquarters, a second stolen car, a Reo sedan, was recovered by the police and John Vermatten, 20, who gave his home as Columbus, was arrested at the home of H. Stouffer, 741 Cheney-av, for investigation.

Vermatten's arrest followed the finding by the police of two pints of liquor and a black jack made out of a piece of lead pipe with a twisted copper wire handle, in the car, officers report. When confronted by the police in the Stouffer home, Vermatten is said to have admitted the car was not his property.

A telephone message from Columbus revealed the fact that the Reo had been stolen from that city Saturday night police state. Vermatten was taken back to Columbus by a detective from that city yesterday afternoon.

Indianapolis City Counsel Drafts Petition Seeking Removal of Mayor Duvall

JOHN L. DUVALL WM. C. BUSER

Indianapolis city hall and two of its officials against whom impeachment proceedings have been started, Mayor John L. Duvall and his brother-in-law, William C. Buser, city controller.

XVI

BY BONITA WITT

DIFFERENCES between Mayor John L. Duvall, of Indianapolis, and his former corporation counsel, Alvah J. Rucker, who is one of the central figures in impeachment proceedings instituted against Duvall, began when Rucker, as corporation counsel, entered suit against former county treasurers, to recover interest which they had acquired under the Barrett law, which controls payment of paving taxes.

"Treasurers have been collecting approximately $100,000 a year in interest," Rucker says. Duvall, a former treasurer, opposed Rucker's fight.

Rucker also opposed the merger of two utilities companies, which the mayor seemed to favor. Believing the issuance of $65,000,000 of securities unreasonable, Rucker filed suit in court for an injunction, but his petition was denied on grounds of prematurity. He went before the state public utilities commission also. The hearing was set for Jan. 31, 1927, although Rucker protested this did not give sufficient time for him to prepare his case.

On Saturday, Jan. 8, he was notified that a decision was to be reached immediately on the recommendation of the Chamber of Commerce. He prepared to file another injunction in court to prevent issuance of the securities on the following Monday at 9 o'clock. But on Sunday afternoon he received a letter from Mayor Duvall requesting his resignation, to go into effect on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Rucker's Views

According to Rucker 90 per cent of the public utilities in Indiana are controlled by "outside interests," or "foreigners," as he calls them. He speculates as to the outcome of a gubernatorial campaign in which a candidate would run on a platform of "anti-foreign" domination of public utilities.

Rucker has been spoken of as an aspirant for the Republican nomination for governor on an anti-"foreign"-owned utilities, anti-primaries' platform.

Rucker drew up the impeachment resolution for the group of councilmen who introduced it a session of the city council recently.

This list of impeachment charges:

That Mayor Duvall and his brother-in-law, William C. Buser, city controller, made false statements of campaign [illegible] from William H. [illegible]

That Duvall [illegible] Armitage [illegible] public works [illegible].

Further Allegations

That Duvall [illegible] Buser and Duvall.

That Duvall [illegible] member of the [illegible] Circle K[illegible] would [illegible] 55 per cent of [illegible] from the [illegible] of the K[illegible].

That Duvall and Buser have been negligent in failing to [illegible].

Immediate action on the [illegible] was forestalled by [illegible] a committee of five, four of whose members are said to be favorable to the mayor.

Stephenson Silent

To all of these charges, Mayor Duvall responds:

"As long as this matter had to be settled, I am glad it has come to a point where it has to be settled. A situation has existed in Indianapolis for many years wherein the elected representatives of the people have either had to submit to the dictation of selfish and sinister influences or to submit to attacks which are almost unbearable."

When the charges against the mayor were before the grand jury several months ago Stephenson was brought from Michigan City to testify, but he refused to answer questions and the prosecutors were unsuccessful in their efforts to induce him to talk. He had been complaining in prison he had not been permitted to talk, but when given this opportunity, he failed to take advantage of it.

ANOTHER MYSTERY SOLVED BY SLATER

Famous Detective Rounds Up Men Accused as Girl's Assailants

Cincinnati, Aug. 29—The "homespun" philosophy of Ora Slater, famous Cincinnati detective who solved the Don Mellett murder mystery at Canton, and numerous other cases which have puzzled midwestern detectives, today was credited with another remarkable victory, as police here held one negro, who has confessed another who they say has been definitely implicated and sought two others, in connection with an attack on Miss Flora Bremer, during the robbery of her father's home here, July 24.

The negro under arrest, Frank Cord, 18, after a brief grilling by Slater, who traced him through a tip given by a negro woman, made a complete confession, officers said, declaring the quartet of negroes planned to rob the Bremer home of $4,200 in jewelry and $100 in cash, and then attacked the young woman while the robbery was being carried out.

Rewards totaling $6,000, which had been offered for capture of the attackers, will probably go to the negress who gave the tip to Slater. Police also declared they were confident they would have the others implicated by Cord's confession under arrest within 24 hours.

PROBE GEM THEFT

Police Baffled by Burglary at Long Island

New York, Aug. 29—Hunts of "ace" [illegible] were being [illegible] by police here today in an effort to find traces of a burglar who invaded the Southampton, Long Island home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Snowden and got away with jewels valued at $100,000.

The robbery occurred a short while after Mrs. Snowden had worn the jewels as a star performer in the "Hampton Follies," the gay amateur theatrical event which winds up the fashionable Southampton summer season. The jewels were taken from Mrs. Snowden's dresser.

In the belief the robbery may have been an inside job, the 12 servants on the Snowden estate were questioned, but no clues were found.

WORK NEARING COMPLETION

Contractors Estimate Remodeling of Courthouse Will Be Finished by Sept. 12

The walls are being finished in over glazed brown and buff colors. The scaffolds erected for the painting and [illegible] will be removed this week.

General contracting work on the new law library is also nearing completion. J. Ballard & Sons are in charge of the work. A stairway at the northwest corner of the auditorium leading to the library and lounge has been erected.

All of the woodwork will be refinished and the chairs will be installed when the redecorating is completed.

The petit jury will convene in the courtroom Sept. 19, the week following the session of the grand jury. Members for both juries were named last week.

Partition was ordered in common pleas court today in the suit of Amos P. Cox against Susie B. Golding and others. H. E. Thomas, A. E. Johnson and Ed Fauer were named by Judge Scofield to have charge of the partition of the property.

Marriage License

A marriage license was issued this morning by probate court to William C. Phelps, 25, electrician, Richmond, Ky. and Miss Irene Livingston, 21, clerk, Marion.

Suit Transferred

Upon petition of attorneys for the Erie Railroad Co. Saturday, Judge Scofield of the common pleas court granted removal of the suit of Clyde Richardson against the Erie from the local court to the Northwest District Federal Court, at Cleveland.

The suit, asking for judgment of $10,000 as the result of an accident at the Kenton-av crossing when the plaintiff sustained permanent injuries according to his petition, was filed in the common pleas court about a month ago. A bond of $500 was filed by the defendant company for transfer of the case.

Richardson, according to the petition, was driving a motorcycle over the tracks June 30, 1924, and was hit by a westbound train. He avers in his petition that he lost control of the car and could not stop it when he struck a hole in the crossing. He claims the watchman at the crossing did not warn him of the approach of the train.

Answer Filed

Answer to the petition of Carrie L. Kavanagh, executrix of the estate of Edward Kavanagh who filed suit against the Erie Railroad Co. recently for damages for the death of Kavanagh was filed in common pleas court Saturday. The accident which resulted in Kavanagh's death occurred at Dayton, April 18, 1927.

MAY STOP SHOW

Health Officials To Cancel State Fair Baby Feature, Is Belief

Columbus, Aug. 29—Though a thousand Ohio mothers have entered their infants in the state baby show, scheduled to be held here today at the opening of the state fair, the event seemed doomed to cancellation as city, health and state officers this morning opened a discussion of the infantile paralysis epidemic which has spread to all parts of the state.

Director of Agriculture Truax today stood pat on his refusal to cancel the baby show, his office declared, but it was declared the department would concur with any action or order on the part of Franklin County and state health officials.

Dr. John Monger, head of the department of health, before the conference today, declared he would prohibit the baby show if he found the statutes give him that authority.

Ask ten people what they would do if they had a million dollars, and one will propose something original.

COUNTY QUARANTINE ORDERS ARE ISSUED

Columbus Not Affected by Action of Franklin and State Authorities

Columbus, Aug. 29—A quarantine order, prohibiting the attendance of children under 16 years of age from all public places and public meetings in Franklin County, outside the city of Columbus, was issued by health authorities here today, following a conference of city, state and county health officials because of prevalence of infantile paralysis in Ohio.

The quarantine order prohibits the attendance of children at church, Sunday school, public meetings, theaters or on street cars and busses. Parents are requested to keep their children at home.

Action to delay the opening of public schools in the county was discussed but will not be taken until later.

Latest reports to the health officials indicated more than 150 cases of infantile paralysis in the state, 23 having resulted fatally during August.

The only genuine efficiency expert that human industry has found says the Washington Star, is Mussolini. Huh! He's no efficiency expert. He actually accomplishes things!

A Chicago story tells about the distribution of $313,000 among the 4,032 employes of the Yellow Cab company such being their share of the company's profits for the first half of the present year. We've had a suspicion for some time that the Yellow Cab people were making money.

Contrary to any and all suspicions which may be entertained the Chicago woman who had to pay the government $13,354 last week on gowns and gems she neglected to declare is not the wife of any hard working spreader of joy and sunshine in paragraphs. The wife of a paragrapher has never been known to be so careless as that.

Having made a detailed reading of the president's chart Belle Bart head of the American Institute of Astrology who has just returned from an extended European trip says that the stars scowl at Coolidge and smile on Smith and Longworth. We very gravely fear that Belle has succumbed to the moist influence of the Old world.

A Chicago junk dealer was shot and killed one day last week by an organizer for refusing to join the proposed new union up there of one-horse junk dealers. He couldn't have been treated much worse had he turned down an invitation to join a two-horse union.

American Motors the Best Extant.

A mere handful of people mostly London bobbies—less than 100 in all—a cable tells us greeted William S. Brock and Edward F. Schlee when they landed in the Pride of Detroit at Croydon airport Sunday morning at 10:35 o'clock having made the first direct flight from the New world to London.

It was only a few weeks ago that scores of thousands turned out to see Lindbergh land on the same field after he had previously visited Paris and Brussels.

The difference in the degree of enthusiasm shown may have been due to [illegible] to the fact that Lindbergh was the [illegible] that he made a [illegible] the one that he hopped off [illegible] New York for the ocean flight [illegible] North Atlantic [illegible] probable explanation [illegible] Atlantic flights has [illegible] aviators have demonstrated [illegible] such flights [illegible] in them [illegible]

Yet the flight of Brock and Schlee was a remarkable [illegible] in twenty three hours and [illegible] just nine minutes [illegible] an hour and this [illegible] they were lost three hours [illegible] land in mist and fog [illegible] seen that their speed [illegible] maintained it with a [illegible] both gas and oil.

Thus we have Lindbergh, Chamberlin, Byrd and Brock crossing the North Atlantic with motors working perfectly according to every demand made upon them. What better evidence could be had that America has the best and finest motor, for all need the same base known to the world?

Indifference to the Coal Strike

[illegible]

[illegible] result that there was a falling off in production and a dwindling of the supply in storage the average car loadings for the six weeks following July 1 being [illegible] a week less than for the preceding three month period. At present the production is reported at [illegible] tons a week while the average consumption is about 10,500,000 tons a week. In other words production is dropping behind consumption at the rate of [illegible] tons a week and the difference is going to be larger when winter sets in for the consumption in the late fall winter and early spring months is considerably above the average.

It is not yet too late for the public to help itself in a measure by proceeding to buy its coal for the coming winter. This will not [illegible] but stimulate production, do [illegible] the transportation problem but may save the consumer money. It certainly will if the strike is prolonged.

The operators could keep right on producing regardless of the demand of course but nobody has ever suspected them of being philanthropists. Without the demand for more production it would mean storage at the mine and the more coal stored the less the chances of an advanced price.

No. If the mines are to produce up to the capacity of their forces it will be because of the demand at the mines for coal and that demand will hardly set in till the consumers get busy and arrange for their winter supplies. If all of us wait until cold weather sets in we not only will probably be pinched in the price but also bring about a distribution problem which may pinch us for coal even should the supply be enough to meet the demand.

Workhouse Outlook, Not So Good.

It is a fairly safe betting proposition that the workhouse project will be permitted to die.

This is not stated upon official authority. In fact it may develop official denial. But there are indications that the proposal to issue bonds for workhouse purposes will be abandoned.

As is known city and county officials have been doing a little investigating, which has resulted in a number of surprises. One of them is that the proposed workhouse would necessitate an outlay of from $250,000 to $300,000. Another is that there isn't a city of the size of Marion in the state which has a workhouse or wants one that the larger cities only have such institutions. It was thought that light on the subject could be gleaned down in Xenia and the investigators did get some light down there. They found that the Xenia workhouse had been abandoned to save the municipality from bankruptcy. That as a civic luxury a workhouse is in a class by itself.

It may be just as well. There is real demand for the improvement of the county court house and real need for better storm water protection in several sections of the city. A proposal to issue bonds for a workhouse in addition to bond issues for these projects even though one of the proposals were held in abeyance to be brought up for vote at some date subsequent to the coming November election might have resulted in the defeat of the three.

It's a mighty lucky thing for the thirsty that Big Bill Thompson of Chicago never suspected that that new international bridge would connect us with England.

Aside from the scare given the people of Santa Barbara causing them to rush out into the streets in the fear of being caught in falling buildings the two incipient quakes suffered out there the other day do not appear to have done any damage.

The Spanish government has accepted a statue of Columbus the gift of the American people through former Ambassador Alexander P. Moore to replace the old monument standing at Palos the port from which Columbus sailed on his voyage of discovery. Such gifts are to be commended for the cementing of friendships and [illegible] could be more pleasing to the Spanish people than [illegible] through former Ambassador Moore [illegible] whom they [illegible] friends.

MR. CHAPLIN'S ILL WIND

She is [illegible] years [illegible] and health. She did nothing while she [illegible] therefore entitled to nothing on that [illegible] thousand dollars a year is far more than [illegible] makes if in decency and comfort. We can account for the large amount of [illegible] only on the theory that it is intended [illegible] Mr. Chaplin.

PRESS THE BUTTON

Secretary of Agriculture William M. Jardine hits the nail on the head every time he tells a farmer audience that no sound farm relief program can be [illegible] press the button at Washington [illegible] He thus [illegible] that needs to be done. The [illegible] of federal aids [illegible] road [illegible] and plants needs to be distributed. Congress can do [illegible] much more than yet has been done to solve the problems of the farmer. But it can not magically [illegible] a profit guarantee for all American agriculture. The greatest obstacle to enactment of [illegible] farm relief legislation has been and is the loose-tongued type of American politician who spreads over the agricultural areas the fertilizer of false promise. It is this type of demagogue that has made it necessary for Secretary Jardine and the exponents of sound economy to campaign against the illusion of easy exit from the labyrinth of farm complexities.

In an article in the current Farm Journal Secretary Jardine supplements his various speeches and [illegible] with the outline of a definite plan for succoring the farmers.

In its essential structure there is nothing new in Secretary Jardine's plan. The details will bear study by the proper congressional committee in the fall. But at least what he proposes is an attempt to apply [illegible] to agriculture. What is needed is a program that recognizes both the needs of agriculture and the limitations which restrict governmental interference in private industry and its common and disregard of the basic laws of economics.—Grand Rapids Herald.

EXPRESS SERVICE BY AIR

Announcement by the American Railway Express company of a coast to coast air express service to be [illegible] September 1 affords new evidence of the rapid advance of aviation in the United States and its value to the country's commerce and industry. The express service is to be handled by the same planes that carry the air mail but it will be performed at lower rates than are charged for air mail packages.

Previously there has been an [illegible] air express service from New York through Chicago to Dallas and the Southwest. Similarly Chicago will be the hub of the transcontinental air express which [illegible] New York and Boston on the Atlantic seaboard and San Francisco and Los Angeles on the Pacific. While for the time being there are restrictions as to the weight size and [illegible] of packages [illegible] these restrictions will be [illegible] as the service expands under increasing [illegible] the public.

The air express may be expected to develop as fast as the air mail—and [illegible] a business necessity. And the expansion of the air mail and the air express [illegible] has on the development of aerial passenger routes.—Chicago News.

Views of Those in Public Eye.

BY OGDEN L. MILLS

Ogden Livingston Mills was born at Newport Rhode Island August [illegible] 1884. He was graduated from Harvard in 1904 and in 1907 was [illegible] New York. He became Republican [illegible] for New York county. In 1911 was defeated for congress in 1912 [illegible] a member of the New York state senate in 1914. He has been a director of many corporations. He became a captain in the United States army in 1917 and served with the A. E. F. in France. On his return he was elected to congress. He was defeated for governor of New York in 1926 by Al Smith. Mills married Dorothy Randolph Fell in 1924. The Mills residence is at No. 4 east Sixty Ninth street, New York City.

Mr. Mills believes Hoover has the inside track for the Republican presidential nomination. He says:

Herbert Hoover will be the choice of Republicans for president in 1928.

His all around ability has been demonstrated so many times that people do not have to guess as to what might happen if he were president.

If Governor Smith's nomination by the Democrats seems inevitable by the time the Republican delegates convene the friends of Charles E. Hughes will make a strong fight with the argument that Hughes would beat Smith in New York and insure a Republican victory for the Republican state ticket. But Judge Hughes has stated that he is not a candidate, that he is too old for the place. That not only takes him out but goes a good ways toward eliminating former Governor Lowden, of Illinois, who is older than Judge Hughes.

The farmers who are demanding Lowden would not vote against Hoover. Secretary Hoover has so endeared himself to the people of the Mississippi valley that a capital advantage would accrue to the party making him their standard bearer in the strong probability that he would carry Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and even Arkansas.

Once let the supporters of President Coolidge obtain the tip that Hoover is the administration choice and the Hoover bandwagon will not be of sufficient capacity to hold the politicians who will wish to ride with him.

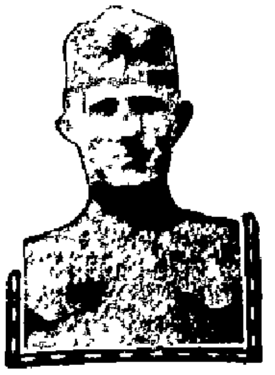
OUT OF MISERY FOR FIRST TIME SINCE WORLD WAR

Konjola Ended Rheumatism and Other Health Troubles For Mt. Victory Veteran

Added to the great list of people in Marion and surrounding towns who indorse this new Konjola medicine is the name of Mr. F. H. Butler, Mt. Victory, Ohio, veteran of the 78th Division Headquarters Company during the great war.



MR. F. H. BUTLER

His statement about the work of Konjola was signed and delivered, with the above photograph, to The Konjola Man who is at the Stump Pharmacy, 121 S. Main st., Marion, where he is meeting crowds in person daily and explaining Konjola. Mr. Butler's own report relates his case in detail.

"Only my closest relatives ever heard me relate my experience in France," he said, "but here I must tell how I developed rheumatism in order to describe what Konjola has done for me. Lying in the mud of Argonne and subject to open weather, had effect on me. I was also gassed. My health naturally failed, and my friends know that I had to sell my business soon after the War because of my condition. This rheumatism kept getting worse the past few years. My arms and shoulders and legs were a solid mass of aches and pains. I seemed to be suffering at all times. My stomach gave me a lot of trouble and most of the time I couldn't eat.

"I was no more than a health wreck when I got my first bottle of Konjola. Before it was half gone I began to feel like I was the happiest man in the state, because this rheumatism was actually leaving my system, and in a short while I was entirely free of all the aches and pains. I can walk without limping and all the swelling in my knees is gone, and the soreness in my shoulders has disappeared. My stomach is perfect in every way, and I am eating more than I have in two or three years. I have new strength and greater energy to do things.

"In fact, I am entirely out of misery for the first time since I left France, and Konjola is the only medicine I ever had experience with that really benefited me in such wonderful way, and I don't hesitate to give it my indorsement."

The Konjola Man is at the Stump and Sams Pharmacy, 121 S. Main st., Marion, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Konjola is now being sold by all of the good druggists in every nearby town of this whole section.—Adv.

It is the deadliest of gambling games — this common American habit of tossing firebrands, in the shape of lighted matches.

The sedan car used by the masked kidnapers was found abandoned on a lonely road about 28 miles from the Minnetonka Hotel and identified as the property of Mrs. Emma Fowlick, a guest of the Minnetonka. The discovery of the theft of the car from the hotel garage had been reported to Mrs. Fowlick shortly before midnight."

Jerry Macklin read no more. Action was necessary to him in any crisis. He pushed back his chair so violently that it crashed to the floor.

As he dressed his mind milled frantically over the various aspects of the case into which Vee-Vee had gotten herself despite his warning.

THIS NURSE NOW HAS GOOD HEALTH

Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time and I would not be without it in the house. As I am a children's nurse, I have to be on my feet a great deal and your medicine has helped me wonderfully. I was hardly able to do my housework when I began taking it, and now I am a strong and well woman, able to do all that and go out nursing besides. I have also used the Sanative Wash and found it beneficial."—Mrs. Gertrude L. Stewart, 103 Davis St., Greenfield, Mass.

Valuable for Weakness

Shopping for you

In World Markets

JUST as you shop around for the best of everything, so your favorite grocer shops for you in world markets.

He gets fragrant spices from Java . . . from the Orient, special blends of tea . . . luscious fruits from the tropics . . . a host of good things to eat from all over the world. And each is the very best of its kind, for it comes from the finest source of supply.

With the same thoughtful desire to please your particular taste, your grocer gets delicious loaves of Holsum Bread oven-fresh from the famous Holsum Bakery.

He knows that he could make you no happier if he were to shop for bread all over the world.
